Visual Designer — based in San Jose, CA.

Hello, I am Naomi.

I am a self-driven visual designer that loves to explore the world of creativity. I am passionate about expanding my horizons and finding balance between logical and creative approaches. I am determined to make a positive impact by translating information into stunning visuals!

Integrated Calendar

Designing using different mediums to create intention and a harmonious pattern.

a unique calendar while incorporating a calling

BRELLA

field of water.

Designing with intention and branding for a fictitious organization that engages in the Designing an orihon fold using information organization techniques and design elements to create a coherent visual story of a person.

My Friend, Miyuko

NAOMI H. NGUYEN

